I. DISCOVERY

Plaintiffs have filed numerous requests for production of documents from Defendants. Defendants, in turn, have submitted responses and objections. Plaintiffs argue that they require certain of these documents in order to fully present their Motion for Preliminary Injunction at the hearing scheduled for Monday, March 3. To the extent possible, Defendants are hereby ORDERED to produce the documents requested in Plaintiffs' Designation of Witnesses and List of Required Documents for Preliminary Injunction Hearing. See Docket No. 137 at 4-6.

1 Regarding the other four witnesses, none of whom is a named 2 party, Plaintiffs have not attempted to subpoena any of them. The 3 Court therefore declines to require these witnesses to appear at 4 the hearing.

5 The parties also appear unable to agree on the scheduling of 6 witness testimony during the hearing. In case there is any 7 confusion, the Court notes that Plaintiffs will be expected to 8 present their witnesses first. Once Plaintiffs have presented
9 their case, the Court will determine whether any rebuttal
10 testimony by Defendants' witnesses is necessary. Both parties are 11 expected to have their witnesses on hand and prepared to testify.
